What is a letter? Not affection tell.
A tongue that speaks for those who absent dwell.
A silent language uttered to the eye,
Which evades distance would in vain deny.
A link to bind when circumstances part,
A means of being stretched from heart to heart—
Formed to convey the electric chain,
The mystic fluid of the lightning of the brain
And thrill at once through its remotest link,
The throes of passion to a drop of ink.

END OF SALE — THANK YOU

Our 1976 auction of Rarities of the World realized $1,136,800.00, the second consecutive year of more than a million dollars realized at a single auction session.

Our 1975 Auction Sales realized a total of more than Five Million Dollars, also a record.

This is irrefutable proof that we can sell any type of Philatelic property advantageously.

It makes good sense to deal with the firm that is constantly setting new records. Why not keep this in mind when you have anything of philatelic merit for disposal.
