PREFACE.

---

It is necessary, in placing this catalogue in the hands of collectors, to make an explanation of the prices attached to the varieties listed.

It has been impossible to price all stamps, for many varieties are unobtainable, and those that are not are often so rare that prices attached would have no meaning.

The prices given in ordinary type, are net prices for fair specimens. Extra specimens and clear prints, or unused stamps with original gum and even perforated are worth more. The prices in italics are merely approximate statements of the value of the stamps so priced. No prices in this catalogue are guaranteed to hold good for any length of time.

The demand for United States stamps is so great, that constant advances in value are taking place, and dealers must change their prices to correspond with them.

Collectors who do not care to gather the lesser varieties should, in ordering, ask only for the stamps listed by number in black-faced type. Those desiring minor varieties should order by capital or small letters as well as number, according to the extent to which it is intended to carry the collecting. It should be remembered, however, that the stamps designated by letters are varieties of those numbered and printed in black-faced type.

The price attached to the numbered specimen is always that of the cheapest variety. The addenda is not a part of the catalogue proper, as it does not merit the title of comprehensive, but merely includes such United States stamps as collectors desire, whose peculiarities and varieties we have not considered in this work.

The publisher will assort and mark for collectors in accord with the designations of this catalogue any United States stamps they may send him for the purpose. The time taken by such work is considerable and a charge of twenty-five cents a dozen will therefore be made. (Minimum fee, 25c.)

PLIMPTON ISSUE.

The profiles in this issue are mostly poor, and are wretched imitations of the fine engravings of the Reay Issue.

1c. Die A—Bust forms a corner at the back near the frame. Lettering very poorly executed. Distinct circle in the “O” of POSTAGE.

1c. Die B—Lower part of the bust points to the end of the “E” of ONE. Head inclined downward.

2c. Die A—Bust narrow at the back. This figures of value. The head of the “P” of POSTAGE is very narrow.

2c. Die B—Bust broad. Figures of value in long ovals.

2c. Die B2—Similar to Die B, but the figure “2” at the left touches the oval.

2c. Die B3—Similar to Die B, but the “O” of TWO has the center netted instead of plain, and the “G” of POSTAGE and “C” of CENTS have a diagonal cross line.

2c. Die C—Bust broad. Numerals in ovals short and thick.

- 2c. Die D—Bottom of bust cut almost semicircular.
- 3c. Die A—Thin lettering. Long thin figures of value.
- 3c. Die B—Thick lettering. Well formed figures of value.
- 3c. Die C—Top of the head egg shaped. Knot of Quene well marked.

The Post Office.

A Philatelic Monthly.

The Post Office has done more for the interest of United States Stamps than all other Philatelic papers combined. Mr. G. T. Loomis of Attica, N. Y., says:
