The Knoxville Stampless Provisionals

The Knoxville printed envelopes were press printed on envelopes of two colors and assorted sizes. The circular design is made of printer's type within brass rule circles. The central figure is a stock cut of an eagle.

Historically the Knoxville stampless envelopes with printed indicia have been listed in two colors. The 2012 CSA Catalog lists all envelopes of this type under one number without regard to the envelope color. The reason for this is that the printer used whatever envelopes were at hand without regard to color.

The handstamped provisionals were prepared by handstamping envelopes with the office postmark in which the date logos were replaced with "PAID" and "5" markings.

All cut squares are assumed to be from unused envelopes unless otherwise indicated.

NOTE: The inclusion of an item in this census is not a guarantee of authenticity.

Notes

Why No Postmarks?

See "Notes" in the Knoxville adhesive provisional census.

There are two exceptions to the printed provisional envelopes not having a postmark: The 10c red cut squares (CN-022 and 023). One is canceled by a legible Knoxville March 1862 postmark and the other is cancelled by a partial strike of an unknown marking.

Entires Cancelled by "PAID" marking

Two of the 5c printed provisional envelopes are cancelled by a small "PAID" marking (CN-012 and 034). Knoxville is not known to have used a small "PAID" marking but these two covers have been accepted as authentic uses. Several fake indicia are cancelled by a larger fake "PAID" marking.

Fakes

Although the fake Knoxville provisional envelopes appear like the genuine at first glance, there is one obvious difference that is easy to detect.

Genuine

Fake

The major characteristic to look for is the position of the "S" in "POSTAGE" relative to the position of the "V" in "KNOXVILLE." On the genuine the "S" is over the "V." On the fake the "S" is between "V" and "I." This characteristic is true for all known fakes.

Fake Knoxville printed provisional envelope cancelled by a fake “PAID” marking. This cover as well as several other fakes are addressed to “Lieut / Thomas R. Hunt / Nashville, Tenn.”
